

EIGHTY-FIFTH DISTRICT.

Bee, La Salle, Live Oak, McMullen, Nueces, and San Patricio counties; Live Oak the returning county.—Curran M. Rogers, of Banqueta, Nueces county, was born in Alabama, July 23, 1841; came to Texas with his father, M. W. Rogers, in 1849, and located near where the town of Jamestown is now situated, in Smith county; his collegiate course was interrupted by the late war, and hence was not completed; is engaged in stock-raising; elected to the House November 7, 1882, as a Democrat, over another Democrat.